Final exam: 40% (12/4)
Project
 Initial system: 15% (10/16)
 Final system: 15% (11/29)

Overview

We will be covering, at least in part, all chapters of the text, with particular emphasis on requirements, design, and testing. The exams will be based on the lectures and readings. The team-based project will be to develop a web application, which will be delivered in two phases. The first phase should show basic end-to-end functionality, and the second phase will be to deliver the completed system.
